

My Little Explorers Forest Nursery – Early Year Practitioner Level 3

Who are we?

My Little Explorers started in 2013 as a Forest School in Farley Mount. In 2022, we opened a second location in Romsey - a Forest Nursery. Both settings are secure natural spaces where children can develop their imagination, take risks and build on social skills. With the support of Early Years and Forest School practitioners' children learn in a natural environment and have the freedom and space to be themselves – to run and hide, climb and build dens, tell stories and cook on the campfire. Every day is different as our outdoor settings change from season to season creating new learning opportunities.

Job Overview
